REQUEST FOR EXPLANATION
AND
CORRECTION OF ADDRESS FOR APPLICANT'S COUNSEL

Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

The undersigned acknowledges with appreciation Examiner Medley's courtesy in sending a copy of the June 26, 2002 Office Action to the undersigned by facsimile. But for the Examiner's personal courtesy, neither Applicant nor Applicant's legally appointed counsel would have had a copy of the Office Action, now 13 days after it was allegedly mailed.

It is now clear that the PTO mailed the original Office Action to the wrong law firm in contravention of (a) October 19, 2001 Status Request and Local Address Change, copy attached; and (b) November 7, 2001 Letter enclosing RULE 3.73 STATEMENT PLUS COMBINED POWER OF ATTORNEY FROM ASSIGNEE AND REVOCATION OF PRIOR POWERS, copy attached with post card receipt.

The correct Customer No. 22242 is stated in the attachment (b), although the mailing address is specified to the Fitch Even Tabin & Flannery law firm's Washington, D.C. address.

Please correct the Patent Office records and ensure that all communications concerning this application are directed to the undersigned at his correct address.

Please confirm that you have now made the necessary corrections, which were initially requested in October and November 2001.

This document and the attachments thereto (7 pages) is being sent by facsimile to Customer Service, Group 1700, this 9th day of July 2002 to 703-872-9309.

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Sir:

Please be advised that the local phone and fax number together with the local address for Applicants' counsel have changed. Please update your records accordingly consistent with the letterhead hereinabove.

No action has been received in this continuation application, which was filed more than 14 months ago.

It is also noted that the parent reissue application is now U.S. Reissue Re 37,363, and that the Patent Office failed to mail the patent grant in accordance with the timely filed address change submitted in said parent reissue application.

The favor of a response by facsimile to the attention of the undersigned at 202-419-7007 setting forth the status of this application and the missing reissue grant from the parent application is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,
